

Junior Consultant

Annika Böschen

As a consultant, I am keen to play an active role in helping to shape the HR revolution: bringing people together and developing their talents, incorporating digitalisation and pursuing innovative approaches. In collaboration with my customers, I want to use suitable diagnostic instruments to facilitate fair, forward-looking HR work.

+49 30 403696-416

annika.boeschen@eligo.de

Location Bochum, 44801

Annika Böschen auf LinkedIn

The best way to predict the future is to create it." (Abraham Lincoln) I am motivated about seizing every opportunity to play an active role in helping to shape the future with the aim of making a positive change in the world.

Professional focus and project experience

- > Managing complex recruitment projects, including for insurance companies and the public sector
- > Shaping multimodal selection processes, including in the care-giving sector
- > Advising on, coordinating and developing individual online assessments
- > Creating requirements profiles and recruiting for specialist posts in the energy sector
- > Undertaking potential analyses for individual further development in the fields of trade and agriculture
- > Developing instruments for use in staff recruitment and development, including interview guidelines and role plays